

Agreement regarding handling of personal information

GMO Payment Gateway, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) manages the submitted personal information based on the Basic Standards for Protection of Personal Information. Please carefully read the following information and then check the “I Agree” button.

1. Purpose for using personal information

Excluding when otherwise permitted by law, the Company handles personal information in the scope defined by the following items.

- For contact related to inquiries, requests for materials, etc.
- For executing other work related to the items listed above

2. Person in charge of personal information and contact information

- Person in charge of managing and protecting personal information: Senior Manager, System Headquarters
- E-MAIL : privacy@gmo-pg.com

3. Cautions for provision of personal information

Provision of personal information is voluntary. However, please note that failure to supply required information may interfere with our ability to respond to inquiries, requests for materials, etc.

4. Requesting disclosure, etc. of personal information

The Company will respond in good faith to inquires from persons in relation to notification/disclosure of the purpose of use, correction, addition, deletion, stoppage of use, erasure, and stoppage of provision to a third party. The Company has established the following contact point to respond to such requests.

Person in charge of managing and protecting personal information	GMO Payment Gateway, Inc. Senior Manager, System Headquarters
Contact information	Humax Shibuya Bldg. (7th floor) 1-14-6 Dogenzaka, Shibuya-ku, Tokyo 150-0043
Telephone number	03-3464-2740

5. About Cookies

Cookies (an industry-standard technology used by the web server to identify the user computer) are used on a portion of the Company website and payment service system in order to increase convenience for our users. Web browser settings can be configured to prohibit the use of Cookies. However, in some cases, prohibiting the use of Cookies may prevent full usage of the Company website and services.